

January 31, 2005 Monday 9:00 am

The Bourbon County Commission met in open session with all commissioners and the county clerk present. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and corrected.

Clyde Killion gave a road report.

Commissioners discussed the T-intersection at 230th Street and Kansas Road. Commissioners will view the intersection this week.

Bill Brittain gave a brief report on his meeting last week.

Commissioners reviewed the bi-annual bridge inspection quote from Schwab-Eaton. Commissioners approved the quote.

Harold Coleman spoke to commissioners about a low-water crossing.

Jason Silvers, reporter with the Fort Scott Tribune, was present.

Joseph Johnson spoke to commissioners about bad roads in the vicinity of 250th Street and Limestone.

Joanne Long presented Resolution 09-05 for review. It is the resolution that Laura Hyer brought to commissioners on Friday. The county attorney has looked it over and made minor changes. Terry Graham made a motion to adopt the resolution. Gary Houston seconded and all voted in favor.

Sam Mason spoke with commissioners about the storage issue. He thinks that maybe the City and County can go together to find a building and pool their resources.

Mr. Mason also thanked commissioners for appointing Randy Rockhold to the SEK Mental Health Board. He thinks he will be a fine addition.

Johnny Walker spoke to commissioners about work at the old county barn.

Commissioners discussed changing the time employees are paid. No action at this time.

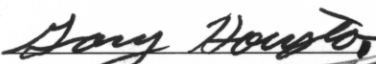

After routine business, the meeting adjourned at 11:55 am.

ATTEST:

Joanne Long, County Clerk

THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF BOURBON COUNTY, KANSAS

 Chairman
 Commissioner
 Commissioner