February 4, 2005 Friday 9:00 am

The Bourbon County Commission met in open session with all commissioners present. Cecelia Key was also present. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Clyde Killion gave a road update.

Marty Messer requested ditch cleanup on 235th St.

David Neville and Karen Paddock spoke with commissioners about the policy for keeping the courthouse doors locked until 8:20 am. As District Court employees arrive at 8:00 am, Ms. Paddock is concerned for their safety if the doors do not remain locked. Commissioners suggested speaking with Laura Hyer about securing the entrance and asked Mr. Neville to price panic bars. No action at this time.

Gary Houston made a motion to appoint Terri Johnson to the 6th Judicial District Advisory Board. Terry Graham seconded and all voted in favor.

Ann Ludlum and Delta George brought the monthly progress reports for the Extension Office and explained what their activities are.

Tammy VonRohr, All American Insurance, spoke with commissioners about a supplemental insurance she would like to offer employees. Commissioners asked Ms. VonRohr to return in the future after speaking with the county clerk.

Barbara Swearingen asked commissioners to place a road sign at the intersection of 230th St. and Kansas Road. Commissioners will look into it.

Susan Quick and Sharon Elder spoke with commissioners about raises for elected officials. Bill Brittain suggested speaking with Terry Sercer to look at the budget to see if it is possible.

Doylene Kennedy requested to purchase two new computers for Public Works. Commissioners asked her to get price quotes. No action at this time.

The Commissioners signed the Noxious Weeds Annual Report.

The meeting adjourned at 11:50 am when all commissioners left the meeting to view the 230th St. and Kansas Road intersection.
